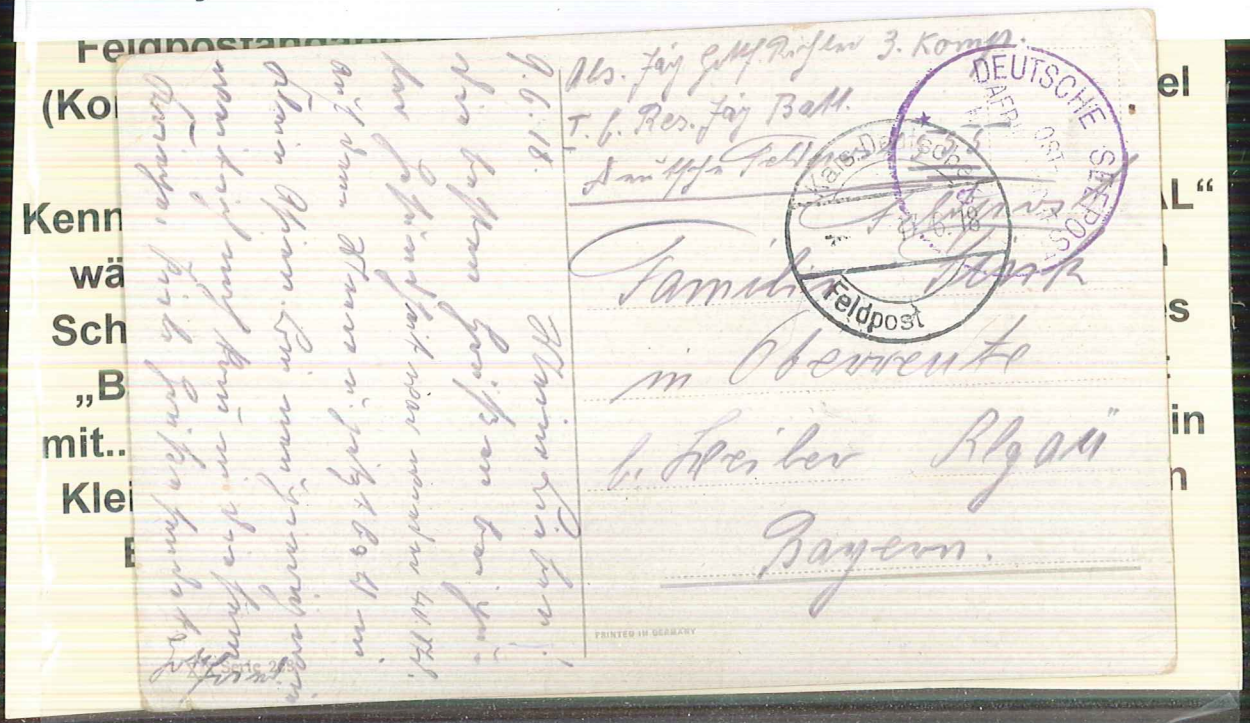
German picture postcard, written 9.6.18 on board the Black Sea troop transporter 'General' to Germany. In handwriting: "…was 40 hours on the sea and will soon arrive in Asia Minor" and "DFP 555". The ship was under way to Poti and the card was postmarked on board with the steamer's cachet "Deutsche Seepost/Ostafrikanische Hauptlinie" and delivered to Constanța, Romania on the return journey. Postmarked DFP 258, 17.6.18, it was forwarded to Germany.



Indian battalions also served in Turkey and Russia as part of 27 Division (80, 81, 82, and 39 Brigade) and 28 Division (83, 84, 85, and 242 Brigade). Indian FPO date stamps used there are: F.P.O. / No. 33, 81, 400, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 415. British troops were supported in Batum by Indian forces using their own Field Post Office no. 406, and eventually FPO no.409.

British troops handed over Batum to the Georgian government on July 7, 1920 and the Georgian flag was hoisted.

Postcard to France with FPO 409, dated June 18?. 1920. Troops were either stationed in Batum or Chanak, Dardanelles, Turkey.

Tarashcha or Tarascha (Ukrainian: Тараща) is a city in Kiev Oblast (region) in central Ukraine. It is the administrative center of Tarashcha Raion (district).

Tarashcha is an historic Cossack town (in the 17th century through 17th century - rather a city). It was founded when the area was [illegible] wealth.

Sartana (Ukrainian/Russian Сартана, known as Primorskoe from 1938 to 1990) is an urban-type settlement on the banks of river Kalmius in Donetsk oblast, Ukraine. It's administratively a part of the Kalmiuskyi Raion of the city of Mariupol. The name of the village is translated from the dialect "urum" which means "yellow calf" ("sary" - yellow, "tana"
