RANGOON G.P.O.

The Burma – England air service, introduced in October 1933 operated weekly. Letters which missed the mail at Rangoon were struck with the framed cachet.

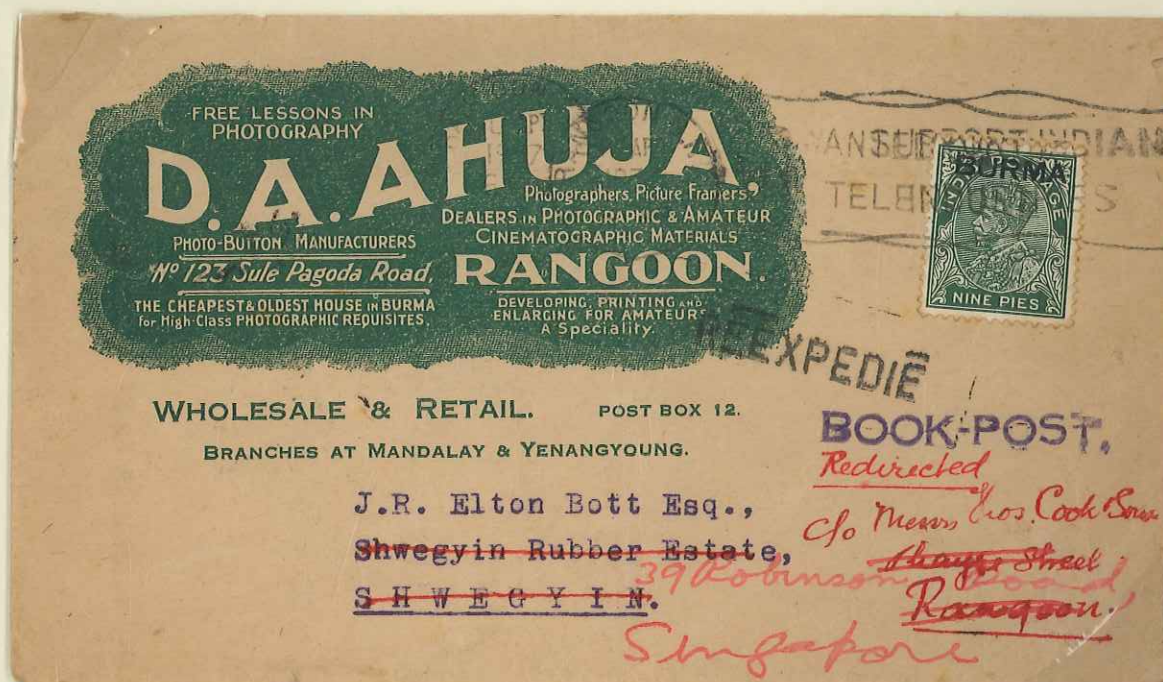

Posted in Rangoon 7 a.m. Monday 27 August (the day the U.K. mail left). It was flown out the following Monday 3 September and arrived in London 10 September.

The postage due label is cancelled MAIDSTONE, 11 September, confirming the system.

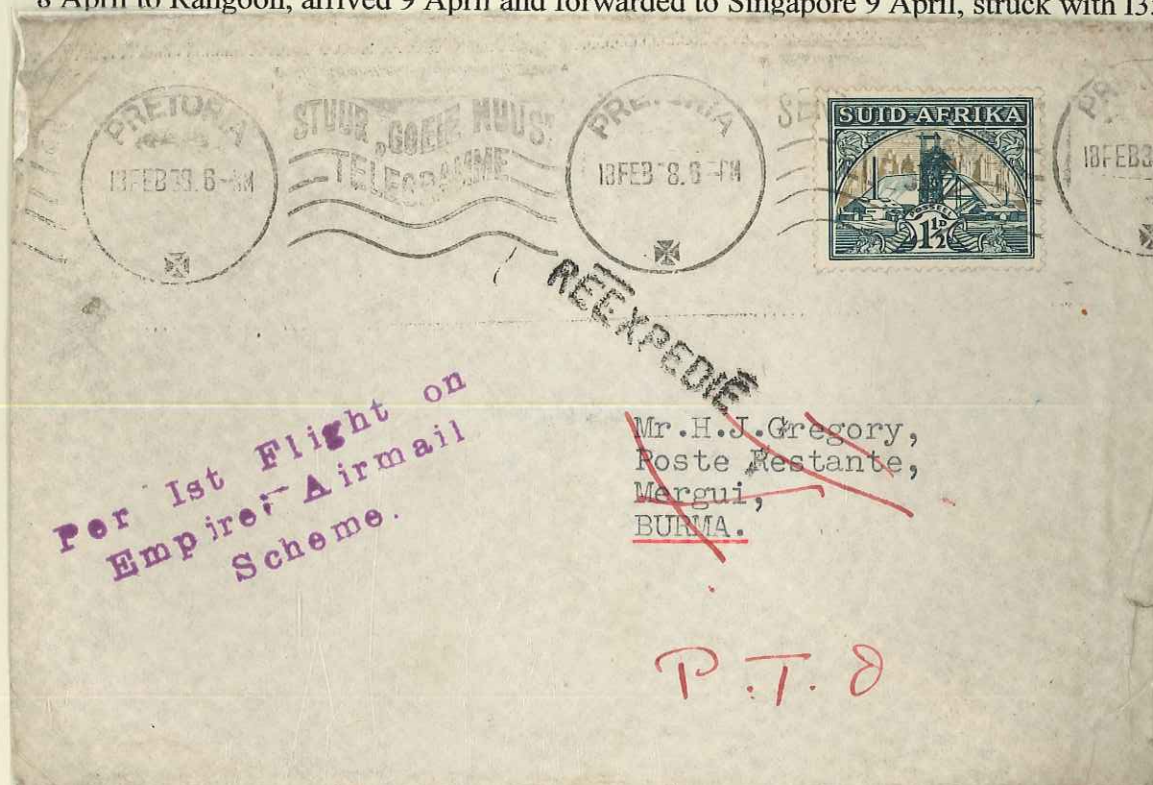

If the air fee was fully pre-paid but the postage was deficient, then the item always travelled by air and the deficient postage was charged on arrival as above.

Mail was only sent by sea if the air fee was under paid.
