Casa Loma is at the corner of Spadina Road and Davenport Road in a commanding position on the Hill. It was the former home of Maj. Gen. Sir Henry M. Pellatt. It is now operated by the Kiwanis Club of West Toronto as a point of interest for tourists. The mansion which is reminiscent of the architecture of Scottish castles has 93 rooms. The drawing room has many of the original furnishings and valuable paintings and works of art are displayed. 134,000 visitors inspected the feudal mansion in 1937.
