SPAIN

By an arrangement between France and Spain dated Aug. 5, 1859, letters destined for Spanish ports and posted directly on board French steamers were delivered uncancelled by the latter, the extra fee for the sea journey being collected at the port of destination.

The vast majority of letters were routed through Barcelona. Direct mailboats from Marseille to Barcelona used the arrival marking "Estrangero Barcelona" in the 1850-80 period. From January 1, 1860 on covers were franked with a 40 centime stamp
