(GENERAL POST OFFICE, DUBLIN.)

30th October, 1923.

Sir,

With reference to your application of the 22nd instant I have to inform you that there are no special Irish Air Mail services.

As will be seen from the enclosed leaflet letters are accepted in the Irish Free State for transmission from London by the various British Air services.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

for the Secretary.

Geo. J. King.
