

"ROYAL MAIL" TALLAGHT – TRINIDAD, WRITTEN BY A MEMBER OF THE ROYAL FLYING CORPS AT TALLAGHT AERODROME

November 6, 1915

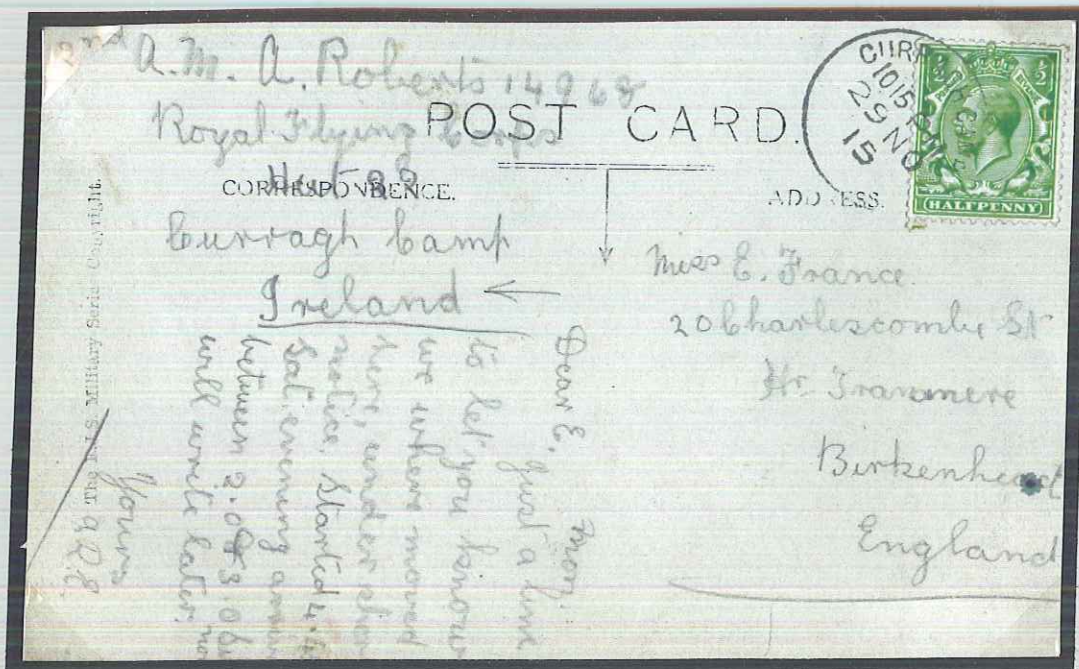

Posted Tallaght on November 6, 1915, inscribed "ROYAL MAIL", and carried to Trinidad.

Port-of-Spain arrival postmark of December 2.

Written by a member of the Royal Flying Corps based at Tallaght Aerodrome, some 7 miles south-west of Dublin.

POSTCARD WRITTEN BY 2nd AIR MECHANIC A. ROBERTS, ROYAL FLYING CORPS, STATIONED AT CURRAGH CAMP

November 29, 1915

Postcard "MAURICE FARMAN BIPLANE READY FOR FLIGHT", posted at CURRAGH CAMP on November 29, 1915, and carried Curragh Camp – Birkenhead, England.

"2nd A.M. (Air Mechanic?) A. Roberts 14968
Royal Flying Corps
Curragh Camp, Ireland

Dear E., Just a line to let you know we where moved here, under short notice.
Started 4.45 Sat. evening, arrived between 2.00 and 3.00..."

UNUSED PHOTOGRAPHIC POSTCARD
OF A GROUP OF ROYAL FLYING CORPS MEMBERS,
TAKEN AT CURRAGH CAMP, CO. KILDARE,
BY "J.F. GAVINS, PHOTOGRAPHER, NEWBRIDGE, CO. KILDARE"

January 30, 1916

Unused photographic postcard
of a group of RFC Royal Flying Corps members stationed at Curragh Camp.
Photo taken on January 30, 1916,
by "J.F. Garvins, Photographer, Newbridge, Co. Kildare".
Inscribed "Curragh Camp, Ireland, 30 - 1- 16".

UNUSED PHOTOGRAPHIC POSTCARD
OF A GROUP OF ROYAL FLYING CORPS MEMBERS,
TAKEN AT CURRAGH CAMP, CO. KILDARE,
BY "J.F. GAVINS, PHOTOGRAPHER, NEWBRIDGE, CO. KILDARE"

January 30, 1916

Unused photographic postcard
of a group of RFC Royal Flying Corps members stationed at Curragh Camp.
Photo probably also taken on January 30, 1916,
by "J.F. Garvins, Photographer, Newbridge, Co. Kildare".

UNUSED PHOTOGRAPHIC POSTCARD
OF A GROUP OF ROYAL FLYING CORPS MEMBERS,
TAKEN AT CURRAGH CAMP, CO. KILDARE,
BY "J.F. GAVIN, PHOTOGRAPHER, NEWBRIDGE, CO. KILDARE"

January 30, 1916

Unused photographic postcard
of a group of RFC Royal Flying Corps members stationed at Curragh Camp.
Photo taken on January 30, 1916,
by "J.F. Garvin, Photographer, Newbridge, Co. Kildare".

UNUSED PHOTOGRAPHIC POSTCARD
OF A GROUP OF ROYAL FLYING CORPS MECHANICS,
TAKEN AT CURRAGH CAMP, CO. KILDARE,
BY "CHARLETON, CURRAGH CAMP"

ca. January 30, 1916

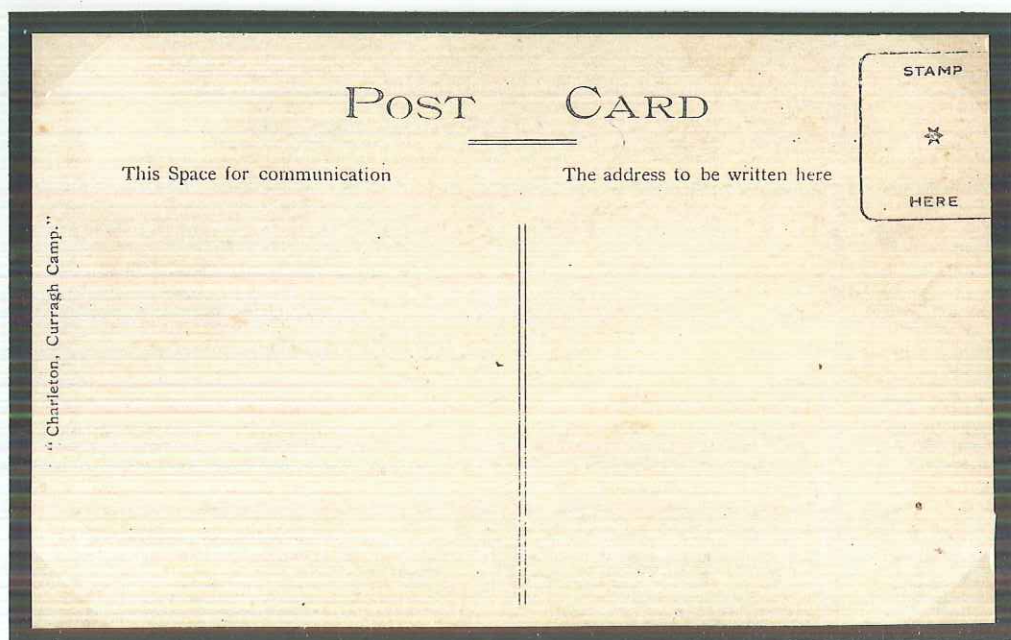

Unused photographic postcard
of a group of RFC Royal Flying Corps mechanics, wearing maternity tunics, stationed at Curragh Camp.

Three of the men also show the scarce "RFC" Economy cloth titles.
Photo probably taken ca. on January 30, 1916,
by "Charleton, Curragh Camp".

UNUSED PHOTOGRAPHIC POSTCARD
OF A GROUP OF ROYAL FLYING CORPS MECHANICS,
TAKEN AT CURRAGH CAMP, CO. KILDARE,
BY "CHARLETON, CURRAGH CAMP"

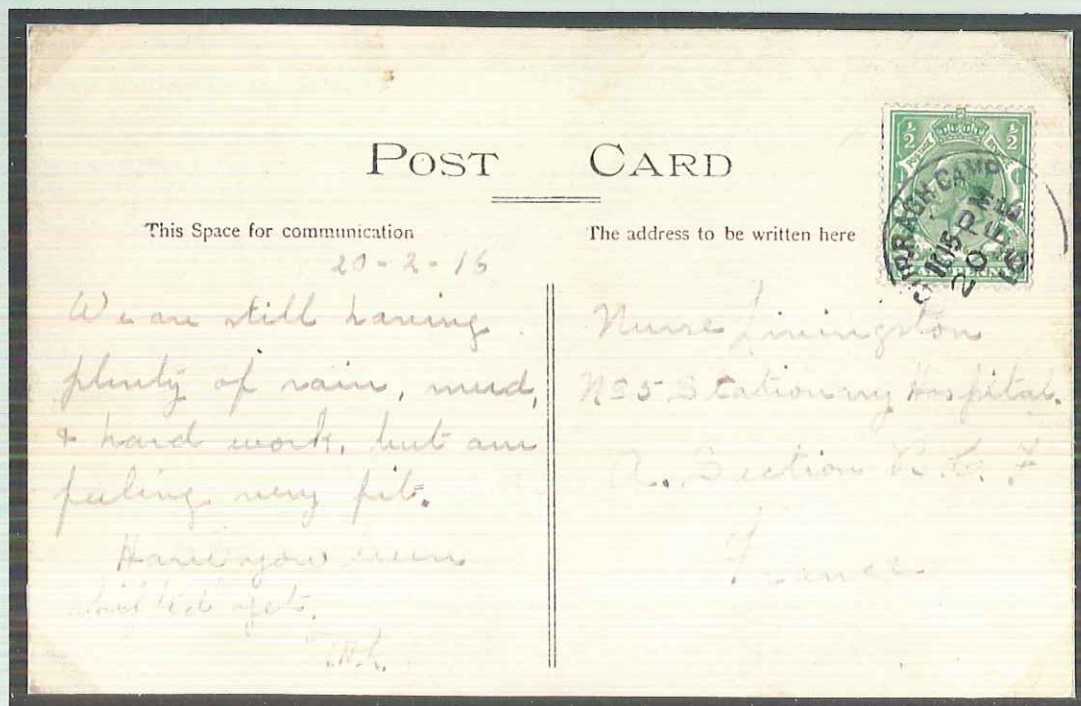

ca. January 30, 1916

Unused photographic postcard
of a group of RFC Royal Flying Corps mechanics, wearing maternity tunics, stationed at Curragh Camp.
Photo probably taken ca. on January 30, 1916,
by "Charleton, Curragh Camp".

PHOTOGRAPHIC POSTCARD OF "Nr. 9 HUT RATH CAMP CURRAGH", ASSUMED TO BE A GROUP OF ROYAL FLYING CORPS MEMBERS
STATIONED AT CURRAGH CAMP:
CURRAGH CAMP - FRANCE

February 20, 1916

Photographic postcard "Nr. 9 HUT RATH CAMP CURRAGH, IRELAND", posted Curragh Camp on February 20, 1916, and carried Curragh Camp - France.

It is assumed that the postcard shows a group of RFC Royal Flying Corps members stationed at Curragh Camp.

"We are still having plenty of rain, mud and hard work, but am feeling very fine".

UNUSED PHOTOGRAPHIC POSTCARD
OF A GROUP OF ROYAL FLYING CORPS MEMBERS,
TAKEN AT FERMOY, CO. CORK, BY "L. EDWARDS, FERMOY"

February 1916 (?)

Unused photographic postcard
of a group of RFC Royal Flying Corps members stationed at Fermoy, Co. Cork.
Undated photo but probably taken in February, 1916, by "L. EDWARDS, FERMOY".

UNUSED PHOTOGRAPHIC POSTCARD
OF A GROUP OF ROYAL FLYING CORPS MEMBERS,
TAKEN AT "CHARLETON, CURRAGH CAMP", CO. KILDARE

February 1916

Unused photographic postcard
of a group of RFC Royal Flying Corps members stationed at Curragh Camp.
Inscribed on the back "CHARLETON, CURRAGH CAMP".
Date of photo unclear but probably taken around February 1916.

"PER ARDUA AD ASTRA" AND
"ROYAL FLYING CORPS, CURRAGH CAMP, CO. KILDARE" STATIONARY: CURRAGH CAMP - HULL

March 14, 1916

poker here, and I'm up &
all the time.
Bet the Petlys don't care preduring, Miss Pought to marry by alright.

Sorry to hear all I'm into find a woman, it's jolly luck for him.
"This is the Hell of a pen."
I want to sell my car as I no time to use it now, as Assistant Adjutant here & all work.

Ireland is some country Dublin when they play the King in the theatre they hiss like the devil.

ROYAL FLYING CORPS,
CURRAGH CAMP,
CO. KILDARE.

14 Mar 16

Dear Arthur

Just got yours, it's jolly funny I posted a few lines to you yesterday "Great minds etc." I expect.

Heard the Zeps did some damage, but they certainly did more than I expected, from your letter, the club has been pretty lucky, with no heap of miss.

We play an awful

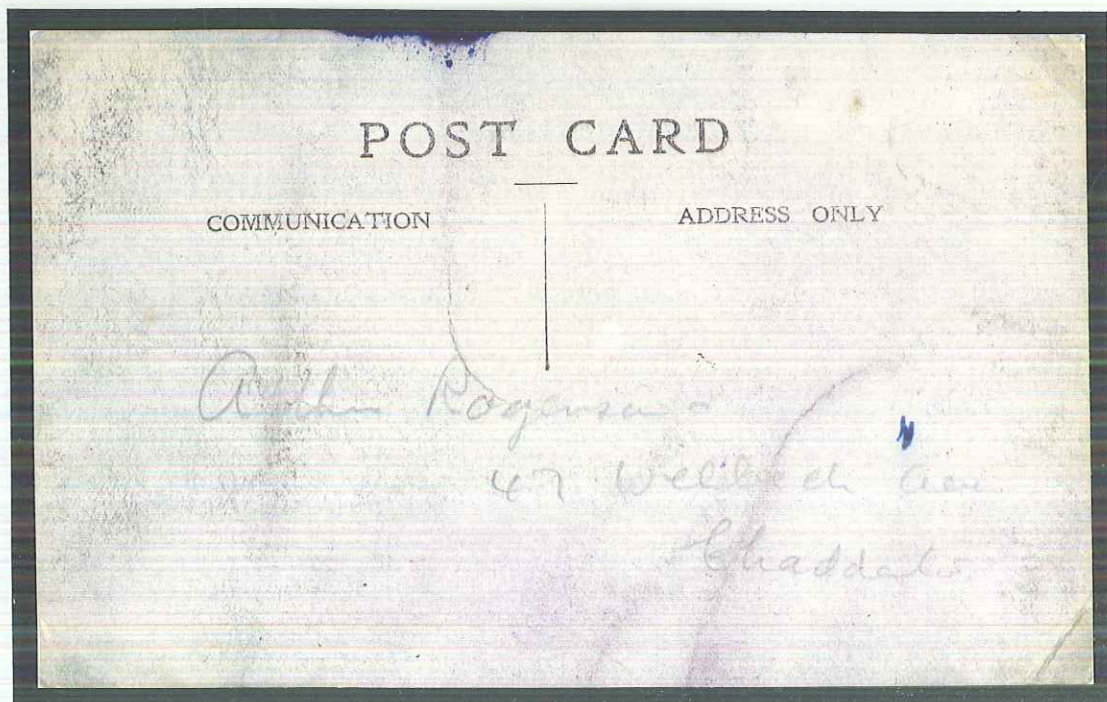

Letter from "Harry, Assistant Adjutant"
on "ROYAL FLYING CORPS, CURRAGH CAMP, CO. KILDARE" stationary to "Arthur Peck, Cottman Street, Hull", who was a special constable during World War I, written on March 14, 1916.

"Dear Arthur, Just got yours, it's jolly funny
I posted a few lines to you yesterday,
"great minds etc." I expect. Heard the Zeps did some damage, but they certainly did more than I expected, from your letter, the club has been pretty lucky, with no heap of miss (?). We play an awful lot of poker here, and I'm up and down all the time. Bet the Petlys don't care for ..., Miss Pought to ... a baby alright. Sorry to hear all ... can't find a woman, it's jolly rotten luck for him.
"This is the hell of a pen". I want to sell my car as I get no time to use it now, as I am Assistant Adjutant here and it's all work.

Ireland is some country. In Dublin when they play the King in the theatre they hiss like the devil. But England must be bad if they allow Sandwich boards for protesting against compulsion. Glad to hear "Dad" is getting on alright and doesn't worry about Zep raids at all. Things are pretty good here, only I want to flatten on the Zep. All the best, old man, Harry".

UNUSED PHOTOGRAPHIC POSTCARD
OF A GROUP OF ROYAL FLYING CORPS MEMBERS
"B. SQUADRON R.F.C. RUNNING TEAM CURRAGH, 1916",
TAKEN AT CURRAGH CAMP, CO. KILDARE,

ca. June 1916

Unused photographic postcard
of a group of RFC Royal Flying Corps members stationed at Curragh Camp, inscribed "B. SQUADRON R.F.C. RUNNING TEAM CURRAGH, 1916".
Photo taken ca. June 1916.