

AIRGRAPH SERVICE.

- (1) Particulars of the destinations to which the Airgraph Service is available, and the appropriate charges, may be obtained at any Post Office.
- (2) Nothing should be written on this side of the paper.
- (3) The whole of the message should be written on the other side below the double line.
- (4) The name and address to which the message is to be sent should be written in large BLOCK letters wholly within the panel provided. The address should be the same as is appropriate in the case of an ordinary letter.
- (5) A miniature photographic negative of the message and address will be made and sent by air mail. At the destination end a photographic print, measuring about 5 inches by 4 inches, will be made and delivered to the addressee. It is therefore important that the message should be written very plainly and that the address should be written as large as possible in BLOCK letters. Wherever possible, black ink should be used. Very small writing is not suitable.
- (6) Stamps to the value of the appropriate charge should be affixed in the space provided above. The completed form should then be handed in at the Post Office. If preferred, the completed form (with stamps to the value of the appropriate charge affixed in the space above) may be forwarded to Dublin in an envelope which should be addressed to :—
