IRAN, 1876-1878

I have examined the waybill sent from Teheran to Bushire, franked with 3 postage stamps of Iran, "Lion and Sun" horizontal pair of 1 Kran carmine, imperforate, on thin white wove paper, and "Shah Nasr-ed-Din" 5 Chahis black and rose, perforated 12.75, Scott Catalogue #19 and #29; Stanley Gibbons #18 and #29, tied to the waybill by two strikes of the bilingual circular datestamp "TEHERAN 14/6". A colour reproduction of this item, in true size, is on the reverse side of this certificate. I am of the opinion that:

The waybill, three postage stamps and cancellations are genuine in all respects and in excellent state of preservation. The pair of one Kran stamps, which correspond to Types A and C in the setting, has three wide margins and the fourth just touching the frameline at top. An important and rare item of postal history.

I have signed it.
