

Recess printing

UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA

London Recess Pictorial Issues

"OX WAGON CROSSING DRIFT"

The recess printing can always be distinguished from the later rotogravure printing by the two white lines instead of one below the country name. There was only one issue of this value but there were two printings; one in Perforation Group I and the other in Perforation Group II.

SG 37. Issue 1. 2/6. Green and Brown¹

Wmk multiple Springbok's Head. Perforation Group I. P 14

March 1, 1927

Control

Ca. Inscriptional pair

Perforation Group II. P 14 x 13 ½ (down)

1930

¹ Postally used stamps in both perforation configurations are worth twice the value of unused.

Recess printing

UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA

London Recess Pictorial Issues

"OX WAGON CROSSING DRIFT"

The recess printing can always be distinguished from the later rotogravure printing by the two white lines instead of one below the country name. There was only one issue of this value but there were two printings; one in Perforation Group I and the other in Perforation Group II.

SG 37. Issue 1. 2/6. Green and Brown¹

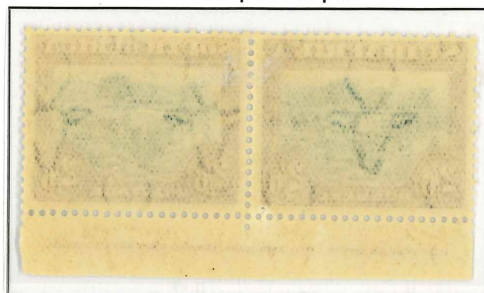

Wmk multiple Springbok's Head. Perforation Group I. P 14

March 1, 1927

Control

Ca. Inscriptional pair

Perforation Group II. P 14 x 13 ½ (down)

1930

¹ Postally used stamps in both perforation configurations are worth twice the value of unused.