10 c on 6c

10 Ch. and 1 Kr. were the rates for Postcards and letters sent abroad. However, the Indian post Office in the Persian Gulf had not raised their charges beyond 6 ch. and 12 ch. So the Persian authorities allowed these stamps to be sold at Ports in the Persian Gulf at the unsurcharged rates, the surcharges being made to ensure that they were not treated as under stamped. These stamps should have port postmarks.
