JASK

Situation: A small port on the Gulf of Oman, it was the first port in the Persian Gulf selected by the Hon. East Indian Company for its trading activities, after obtaining permission from Shah Abbas in 1619. It served as a cable junction en route to India. The first Indian Post Office opened on 1st September 1880 and it closed on 20th March 1923.

Prior to the opening of the Indian Post Offices the Telegraph Office sent mail via Muscat. The stamps were cancelled in manuscript on the cover shown below "Jask August 10th 1873"

MOHAMMERAH

Situation: Known as Khorramshahr, the chief port of Iran, 52 miles (80 kilometres) upstream from the mouth of the Shatt-el-Arab near Abadan. It was founded by Muhaisin tribe in about 1812. As it is a border town between the Ottoman Empire and Persia, both countries laid claims to it, until finally it was handed over to Iran in 1842. . The British Vice Consulate opened in 1890, followed by the first Indian Post Office on 19th July 1892. This office operated as a sub-office to Bushire. The office closed in 1923.

HENJAM

Situation. Henjam Island (in earlier times known as Angar or Hinjam) lies in the straits of Hormuz, on the south side of the larger island of Qishm. Its south point is in latitude 26° 23˝ North. The island is 5 ½ miles (9 kilometres) long by 3 miles (5 kilometres) wide and is barren and rocky. There is a channel between this island and Qishm more than a mile wide which forms an excellent anchorage. Formerly, a British Naval Station and Telegraph Relay Station, it was handed back to Iran in 1923. The Indian Post Office opened on 21st June 1913 and closed in 1923.
