captured Baghdad on March 11, 1917.

A decision was made by Sir Percy Cox, the Chief Political Officer, to obtain supplies of Turkish stamps and postal stationery and overprint them
 "Baghdad in British Occupation" for "the pleasure of annoying the enemy by overprinting his own stamps." Sufficient quantities had been obtained by the end of August 1917 and they were issued during the following month. Records reveal that only 337 envelopes were surcharged two annas in Indian currency, of which very few survive today.

Shortly before the armistice a new issue was made by over-

BACK in the balmy days when the sun never set on the British Empire, postage stamps and postal stationery in use in Iraq, known as Mesopotamia (the two rivers — Euphrates and Tigris) were proudly overprinted "Baghdad in British Occupation" and later "Iraq in British Occupation".
 When Turkey entered the Great War, an Expeditionary Force of British and Indian troops was dispatched to Basra to protect the vital oil pipeline.
 The troops occupied Basra on November 22, 1914, and advanced up the two rivers and, after a hard-fought campaign, printing and surcharging the pictorial stamps that had been printed for the Turkish Government in the period shortly before the war. The issue was announced on August 8, 1918, in a proclamation: "Major-General Hew Fanshawe in virtue of the authority vested in me as Officiating General Officer Commanding in Chief His Britannic Majesty's Forces in Mesopotamia, do hereby proclaim and order that, in lieu of the postage stamps at present in use, postage stamps, bearing Turkish designs overprinted 'Iraq in British Occupation' and surcharged with values in Indian Currency shall be issued by the Postal Authorities for use in payment of postage and postal fees in the Civil Posts of Iraq and shall be brought into use with effect from September 1, 1918, and from that date no other kind of stamps shall be valid for the purpose."

 On April 25, 1920, the Supreme Council of the Allies assigned to the United Kingdom a mandate under the League of Nations to administer Iraq, and this was held until October 3, 1932.
 During this time, the Royal Air Force, stationed in Iraq, played a vital role in developing the Cairo to Baghdad airmail service, that set the course for the through air service from London to Australia.
