

BRITISH ATHLETES IN TRAINING FOR OLYMPIC GAMES.

Pieut, G.L. Rampling and T. Hampson, the famous British athletic champions, are now in strict training for the coming season and the Olympic Games which are to be held at Los Angeles in August. They are both expected to run for England. Rampling is holder of the British A.A.A. quarter mile championship, and Hampton the half mile championship. They are being assisted by Guy Butler, the old Cambridge Blue at the White City track.
