Sergio Sismondo

Philatelic Expert

Syracuse, New York & Ottawa, Canada

Syracuse, New York, 2016.04.08.

BERMUDA, 1948.

I have examined the postage and revenue stamp issued by the Colonial Administration of Bermuda in June of 1948, "King George VI" Twelve shillings and six pence orange-yellow and grey, perforated 14, on medium chalk-surfaced white wove paper with watermark "Multiple Crown and Script CA" upright, Murray Payne Catalogue #15c, Scott Classic Specialized Catalogue #127a variant; Stanley Gibbons Catalogue #120b variant, unused, a colour reproduction of which is below, magnified to 125% of true size, and am of the opinion that:

The stamp submitted is genuine in all respects, unused, with original gum, lightly hinged, and corresponds to a printing of June, 1948. The stamp has fresh colours and is entirely free from faults or repairs at the time of examination. Previously signed by H. Bloch. I have signed it.
