

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

Control F6 in Use September 1906

Plate 9 Left Sheet

Perforation type H1

“Pin repair below “P” of “Postage” row 20 column 12

S.G>Spec M5(ha).

The retouched lines of shading can clearly be seen to touch the frame line alongside the “A” of “Agencies”

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

Control F6 in Use September 1906
Plate 42 Right Sheet
Perforation Type V2

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

Control F6 in Use September 1906
Plate 43a Left Sheet
Perforation Type V2a; right feed.

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

Control G7 in Use October 1907
Plate 36 Right Sheet
Perforation Type V2

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

Control G7 in Use October 1907
Plate 42 Right Sheet
Perforation Type V2

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

Control G8 in Use July 1908
Plate 46 Right Sheet
Perforation type V2

This is the only plate known with Control G8

A second example with a ghost Jubilee line in the right side margin.

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

Control J10 in Use September 1910
Plate 62a Left Sheet
Perforation Type V2a

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

Pusterla Pin Type P10
State 3 clear signs of pin arc
Ex Plate 9 Row 6 Column 1
Plate 9 is ONLY know with control F6
Currently the only known example

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

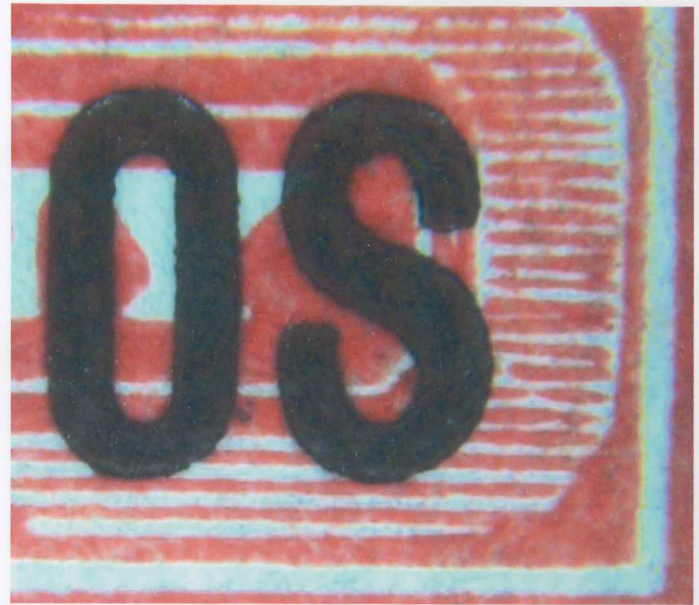

Ex BPO Tangier FE 28 1907
Stotter Type TR-LC1C
With "Bristol Hotel Tangier" cachet Stotter Type BRH-1
One of 2 known examples from the same correspondence.

The stamp shows the Pusterla pin/plug flaw Type 3, state 1, which is only found on Row 12 Column 12 of printings from Plate 9 and for Morocco Agencies Plate 9 is only recorded in combination with Control F6

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

Pusterla Pin Type P5 (state2) Row 7 column 12

The crack in the jubilee line alongside rows 9 & 10 extends into the top right corner of Row 9 Column 12

Ex Head Plate 9
(only known with Control F6)
Rows 6-10 Columns 11-12
Right Sheet.

The British Post Office in Morocco The Overprinted Edward VII Stamps of Great Britain

Ex BPO Tangier ? JU 1911