Lithographed Mono Colour Essays

The design is as used for the Engraved Essays, with sheets being lithograph printed in single colours.

Perforation 12 in gummed sheets of 30 (5 x 6) essays, see sheet example on page 3.04.

The positioning of the line perforations is inconsistent, giving rise to essays with differing overall widths and heights.

This is clearly shown with the two examples of ED6 shown opposite.

Varieties

Essays ED5b to ED20b

- (b) Horizontal cut to inner frame line above right value tablet, essay from Row 2, Essay 3 (R2/3), see fig. 31.

ED5b to ED20b
fig. 31

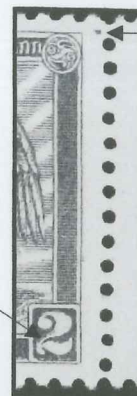

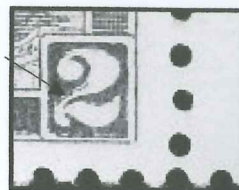

Essays ED5c to ED20c

- (c) Major re-entry to '2' in right value tablet, essay from Row 2, Essay 5 (R2/5), see fig. 32.

A second constant minor variety occurs with essays from R2/5. This minor variety takes the form of a small coloured dot outside the right top corner of the essay. This dot is sometimes not visible due to the sheet perforations

ED10c

ED5c to ED 20c
