Two values: 6 ch rose and 12 ch rose-lilac. Two sizes: size I: 145 x 111 mm; size II: 150 x 120 mm

Without overprint. Never postaly used, the reason being that a huge quantity found its ways to stamp dealers before officially issued. Said to have been typographed in Paris, on white paper

Based on the Lion issue of 1875, a stamp design was made by using a cliché taken from a 5 Kran cliché- according to Friedrich Schüller of 1893 - or from an 8 ch cliché according to IPSC. Said to have been typographed in Paris
