Taunusstein, 13 October 2009

Item:

Great Britain, 1840, 1d black, plate 4, block of six GH-HJ, used on folded entire from Halifax to Louth, Lincolnshire

Provenance:

1995, ex Cooley collection, Shreves Auction, 23 September 1995, lot 229, described: "...the block is of most attractive appearance with mostly wide margins all round, just touching or barely cutting at a few points, cover has been professionally cleaned and restored (including mending some splitting of file folds), one vertical file fold passes through bottom row of block mildly creasing stamps...."

Remarks:

The largest block from plate 4 used on cover recorded by me to date.

Scarcity:

Only three blocks of six from plate 4 used on cover are recorded by me to date (all touched or cut into margins).

The Information about Philatelic Provenance documents the body of knowledge from the time of issue (see date) on the basis of a Card-Index Register of important stamps, letters and Postal History items in British Philately.
