JOHN F. KENNEDY
President of the United States of America

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING:

KNOW YE That, whereas the Treaty banning nuclear weapon tests in the atmosphere, in outer space and under water was signed at Moscow on August 5, 1963 by the respective plenipotentiaries of the United States of America, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, and was thereafter opened to other States for signature at Washington, London, and Moscow;

WHEREAS a certified copy of the text of the said Treaty, in the English and Russian languages, is hereto annexed;

AND WHEREAS the Senate of the United States of America by their resolution of September 24, 1963, two-thirds of the Senators present concurring therein, did advise and consent to the ratification of the said Treaty;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it known that I, John F. Kennedy, President of the United States of America, having seen and considered the said Treaty banning nuclear weapon tests in the atmosphere, in outer space and under water, do hereby, in pursuance of the aforesaid advice and consent of the Senate of the United States of America, ratify and confirm the same and every article and clause thereof.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have caused the Seal of the United States of America to be hereunto affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred sixty-three and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred eighty-eighth.

By the President:

Secretary of State

Salute to Alaska

30th Anniversary Statehood

In the great expeditionary voyage of the Rurik (1815-18) Captain Otto von Kotzebue charted the Marshalls and Alaska, linking the two forever. This commemorative tribute renews our links with three new paintings by Alaska's foremost contemporary artist and interpreter of native life.
