When the Marine Sorting Officers were withdrawn from the Cunard Packets, the AMERICAN MAILS sent via Queenstown were sorted in the railway Travelling Post Office. The T.P.O. between DUBLIN and Queenstown began working on 3rd. Jan. 1869 and ran on three days of the week. Although designated " DUBLIN & CORK T.P.O." it worked through to the port of Queenstown. This T.P.O. Service was discontinued on 26th. October. 1907. Supplementing the circular T.P.O. mark was a single word "PAQUEBOT" handstamp which was used to cancel the adhesive stamps.
