Perforated Army Official Stamps

Stamps of Sudan perforated "AS" for "Army Service" replaced the overprinted Army Official stamps on 1 January 1912. They were used on internal military mail until the return of the Egyptian Army to Egypt in 1924, and continued in use on mail to foreign destinations until supplies were exhausted.

Military Telegraph Stamps
1898-1901

Special stamps were issued for use on telegrams. They show a contingent of the Sudan Camel Corps crossing the desert, passing a line of telegraph wires. Central perforations facilitated use on the receipt portion of the telegraph form.
