12. "SAIGHA-E-AMANAT" - SAFE CUSTODY SECTION

In 1350F/1360H/1941, rules were framed for the Safe Custody of the post. On the written request of the addressee, to retain his post till his return home or to transmit the same to the address furnished by him, a special section was opened at Hyderabad Head Post Office and the District Head Offices. A handstamp in this type was adopted. The size of the circle was of 32 mm. diameter. The upper segment had the name of the post office, the horizontal band had the date and the lower segment had "Amanat" - Safe Custody. The script was good nasta'liq. Pl. XIII. No. 109/a and b.

14. MISCELLANEOUS

14. MISCELLANEOUS

A few handstamps used by the Nizam's Postal Department are rarely found, and seldom fall into the hands of the general public. These were either used on inter-postal correspondence, or affixed in the post offices for record.

Those found are listed below.

For "Anbar Khana Sarishta-e-Tappa" - Godown of the Postal Department - a handstamp of 38 x 12 mm. was used. by Hyderabad Head Post Office - Pl. XVI.No. 138.

Similar handstamps were used by different offices of the Superintendents and Inspectors of Post.

A few variations are noted in the handstamps used by the office of the Superintendents - "Daftar-e-Muhtamimi-e-Tappa" the designation was common to all.

(a). Suba-e-Warangal - (Warangal Division).

(b). Simt Nizamabad - (Nizamabad Range).

These were of 49 x 11 mm. Pl. XVI.Nos. 139/a and b.

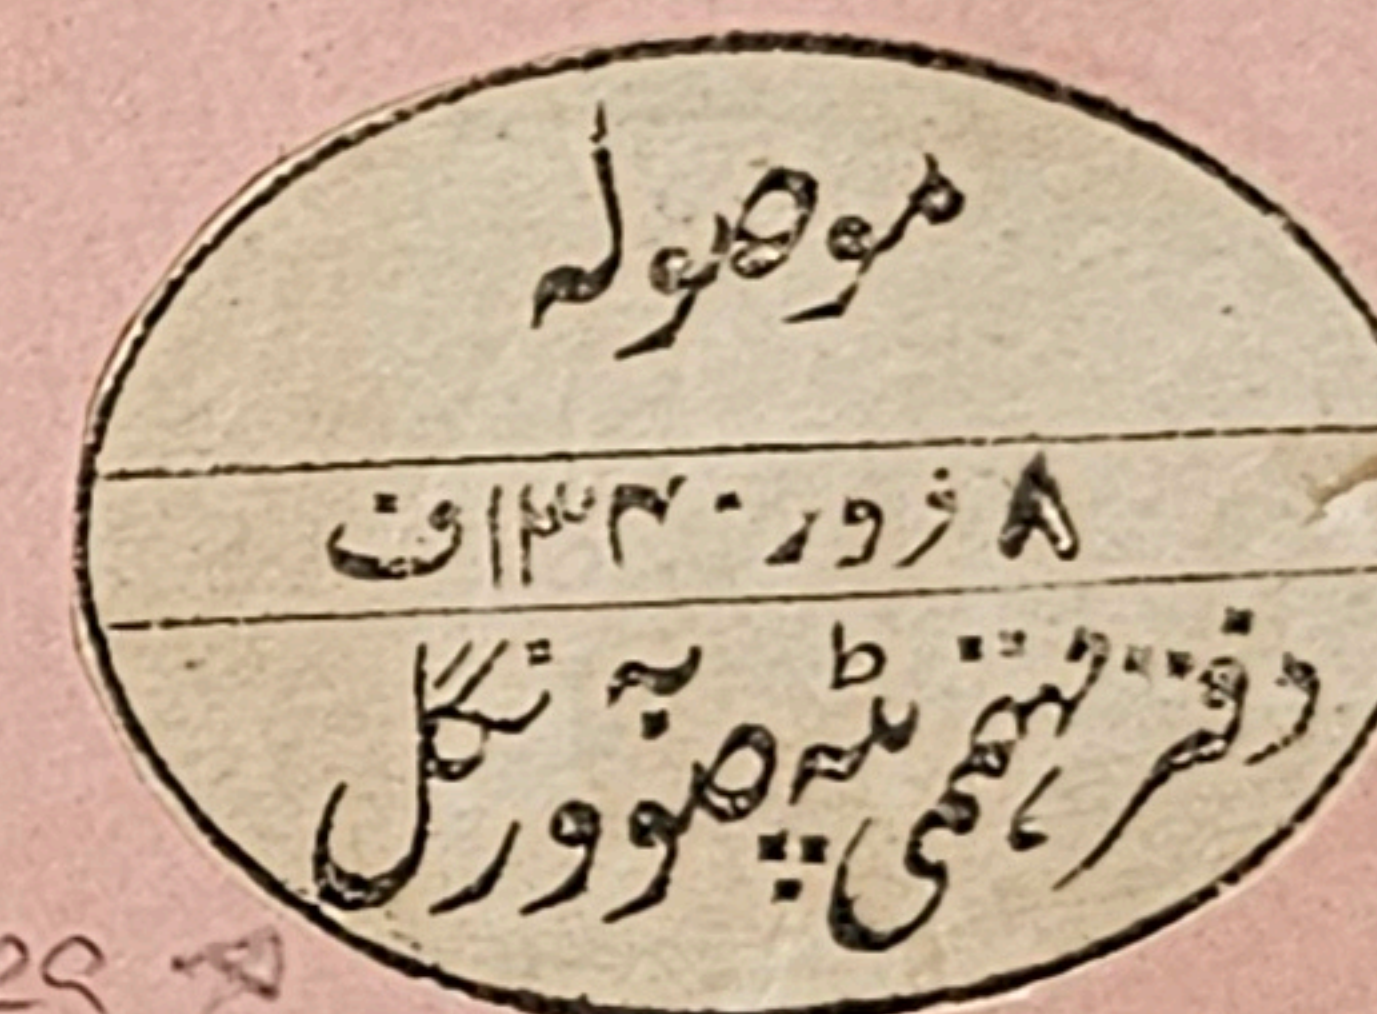

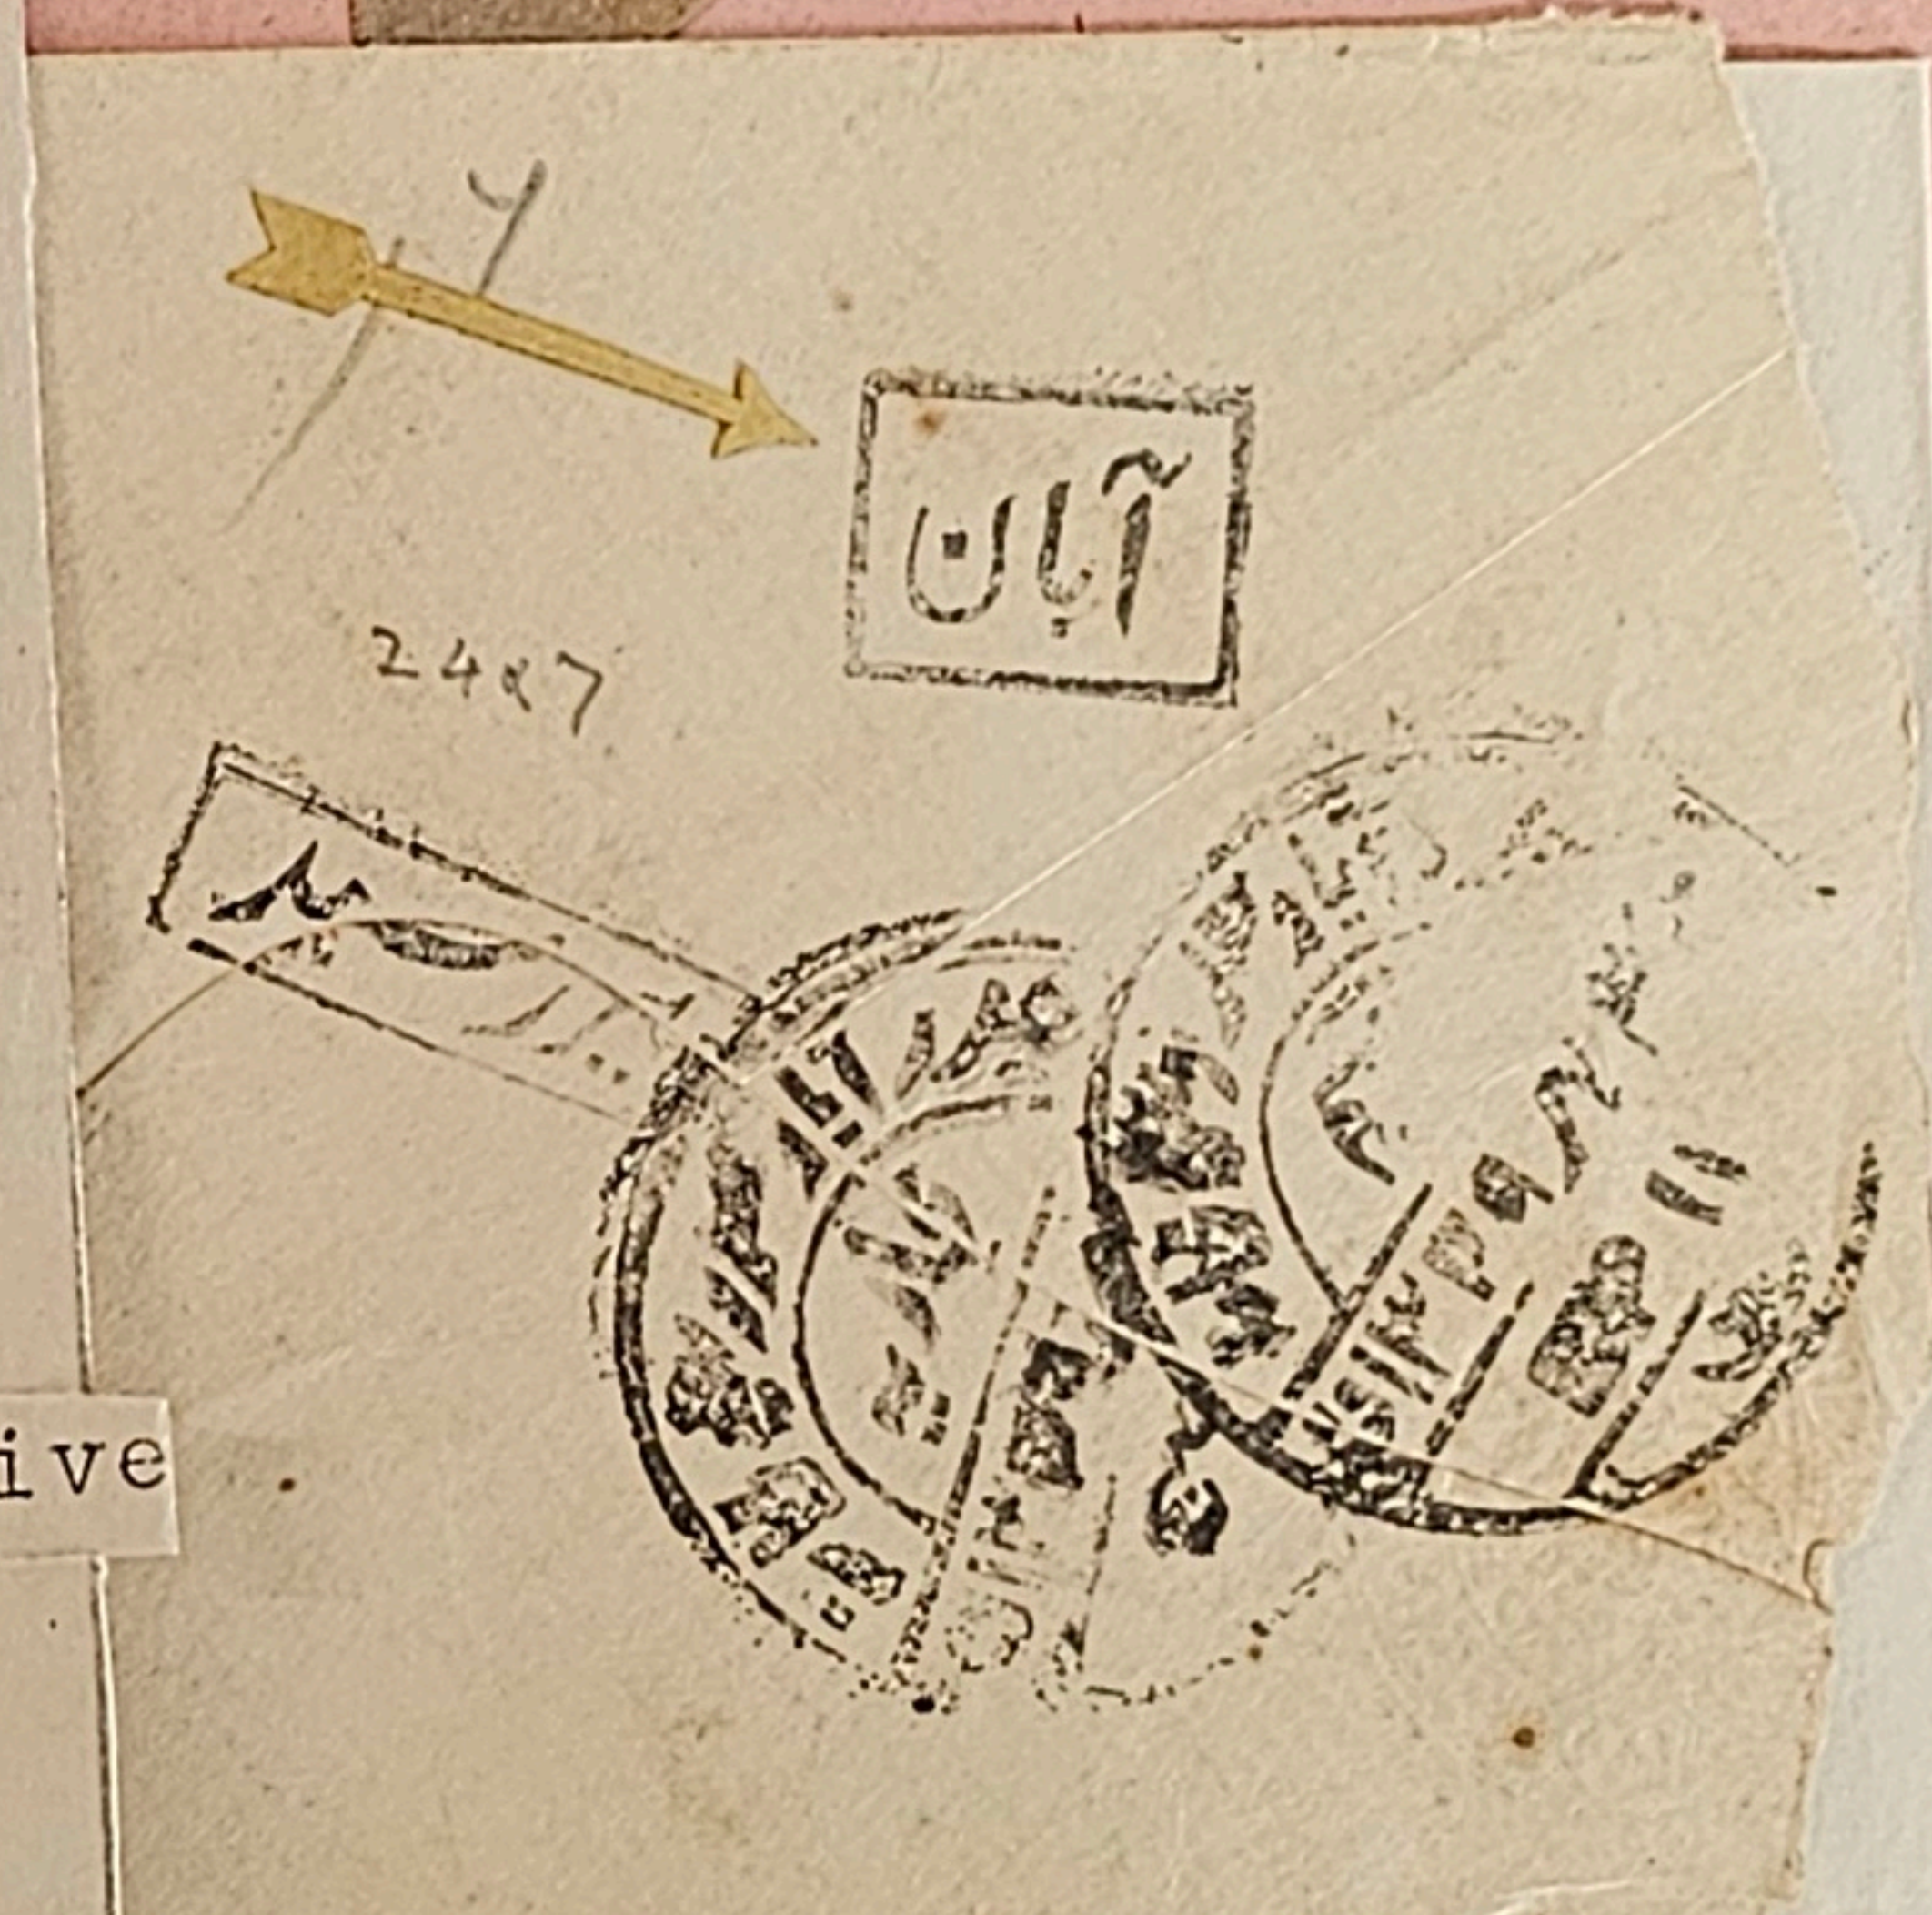

The office of Inspectors had "Daftar Nazir Tappa Khanajat Dila' Karimnagar" - Office of the Inspector of Post Offices, Karimnagar District - Pl. XVI.No. 140.

The oval handstamps for "Mausulah" - Inward - or the big round intaglios used by the offices of the Postal Department are not listed here. These were for administrative use.

A handstamp of 15 x 12 mm. had the last Fasli month of Aban.

(c) DIR-RASID - TOO LATE

Cal. No. 115.
TYPE PD II/c. Rectangle. BA DIR RASID. 1289H.

c. Too Late

A handstamp to indicate that the article was received late in the post office, and consequently could not be despatched along with the mail which was already sealed in bags, was introduced very early.

1. "Ba-Dir Rasid", for Too Late, was grammatically correct, and was used from 1289H/1281F/1872, in red, violet or black.

The size was 18 x 14 mm. and the script crude - Pl. XV.No. 128.

2. In 1296H/1288F/1879, Dir Rasid handstamps were issued for some post offices. This wording continued till the end.

The size of the rectangle, with cut ends, was 19 x 9 mm. and the script crude - Pl. XV.No. 129.

3. A general type was finally issued.

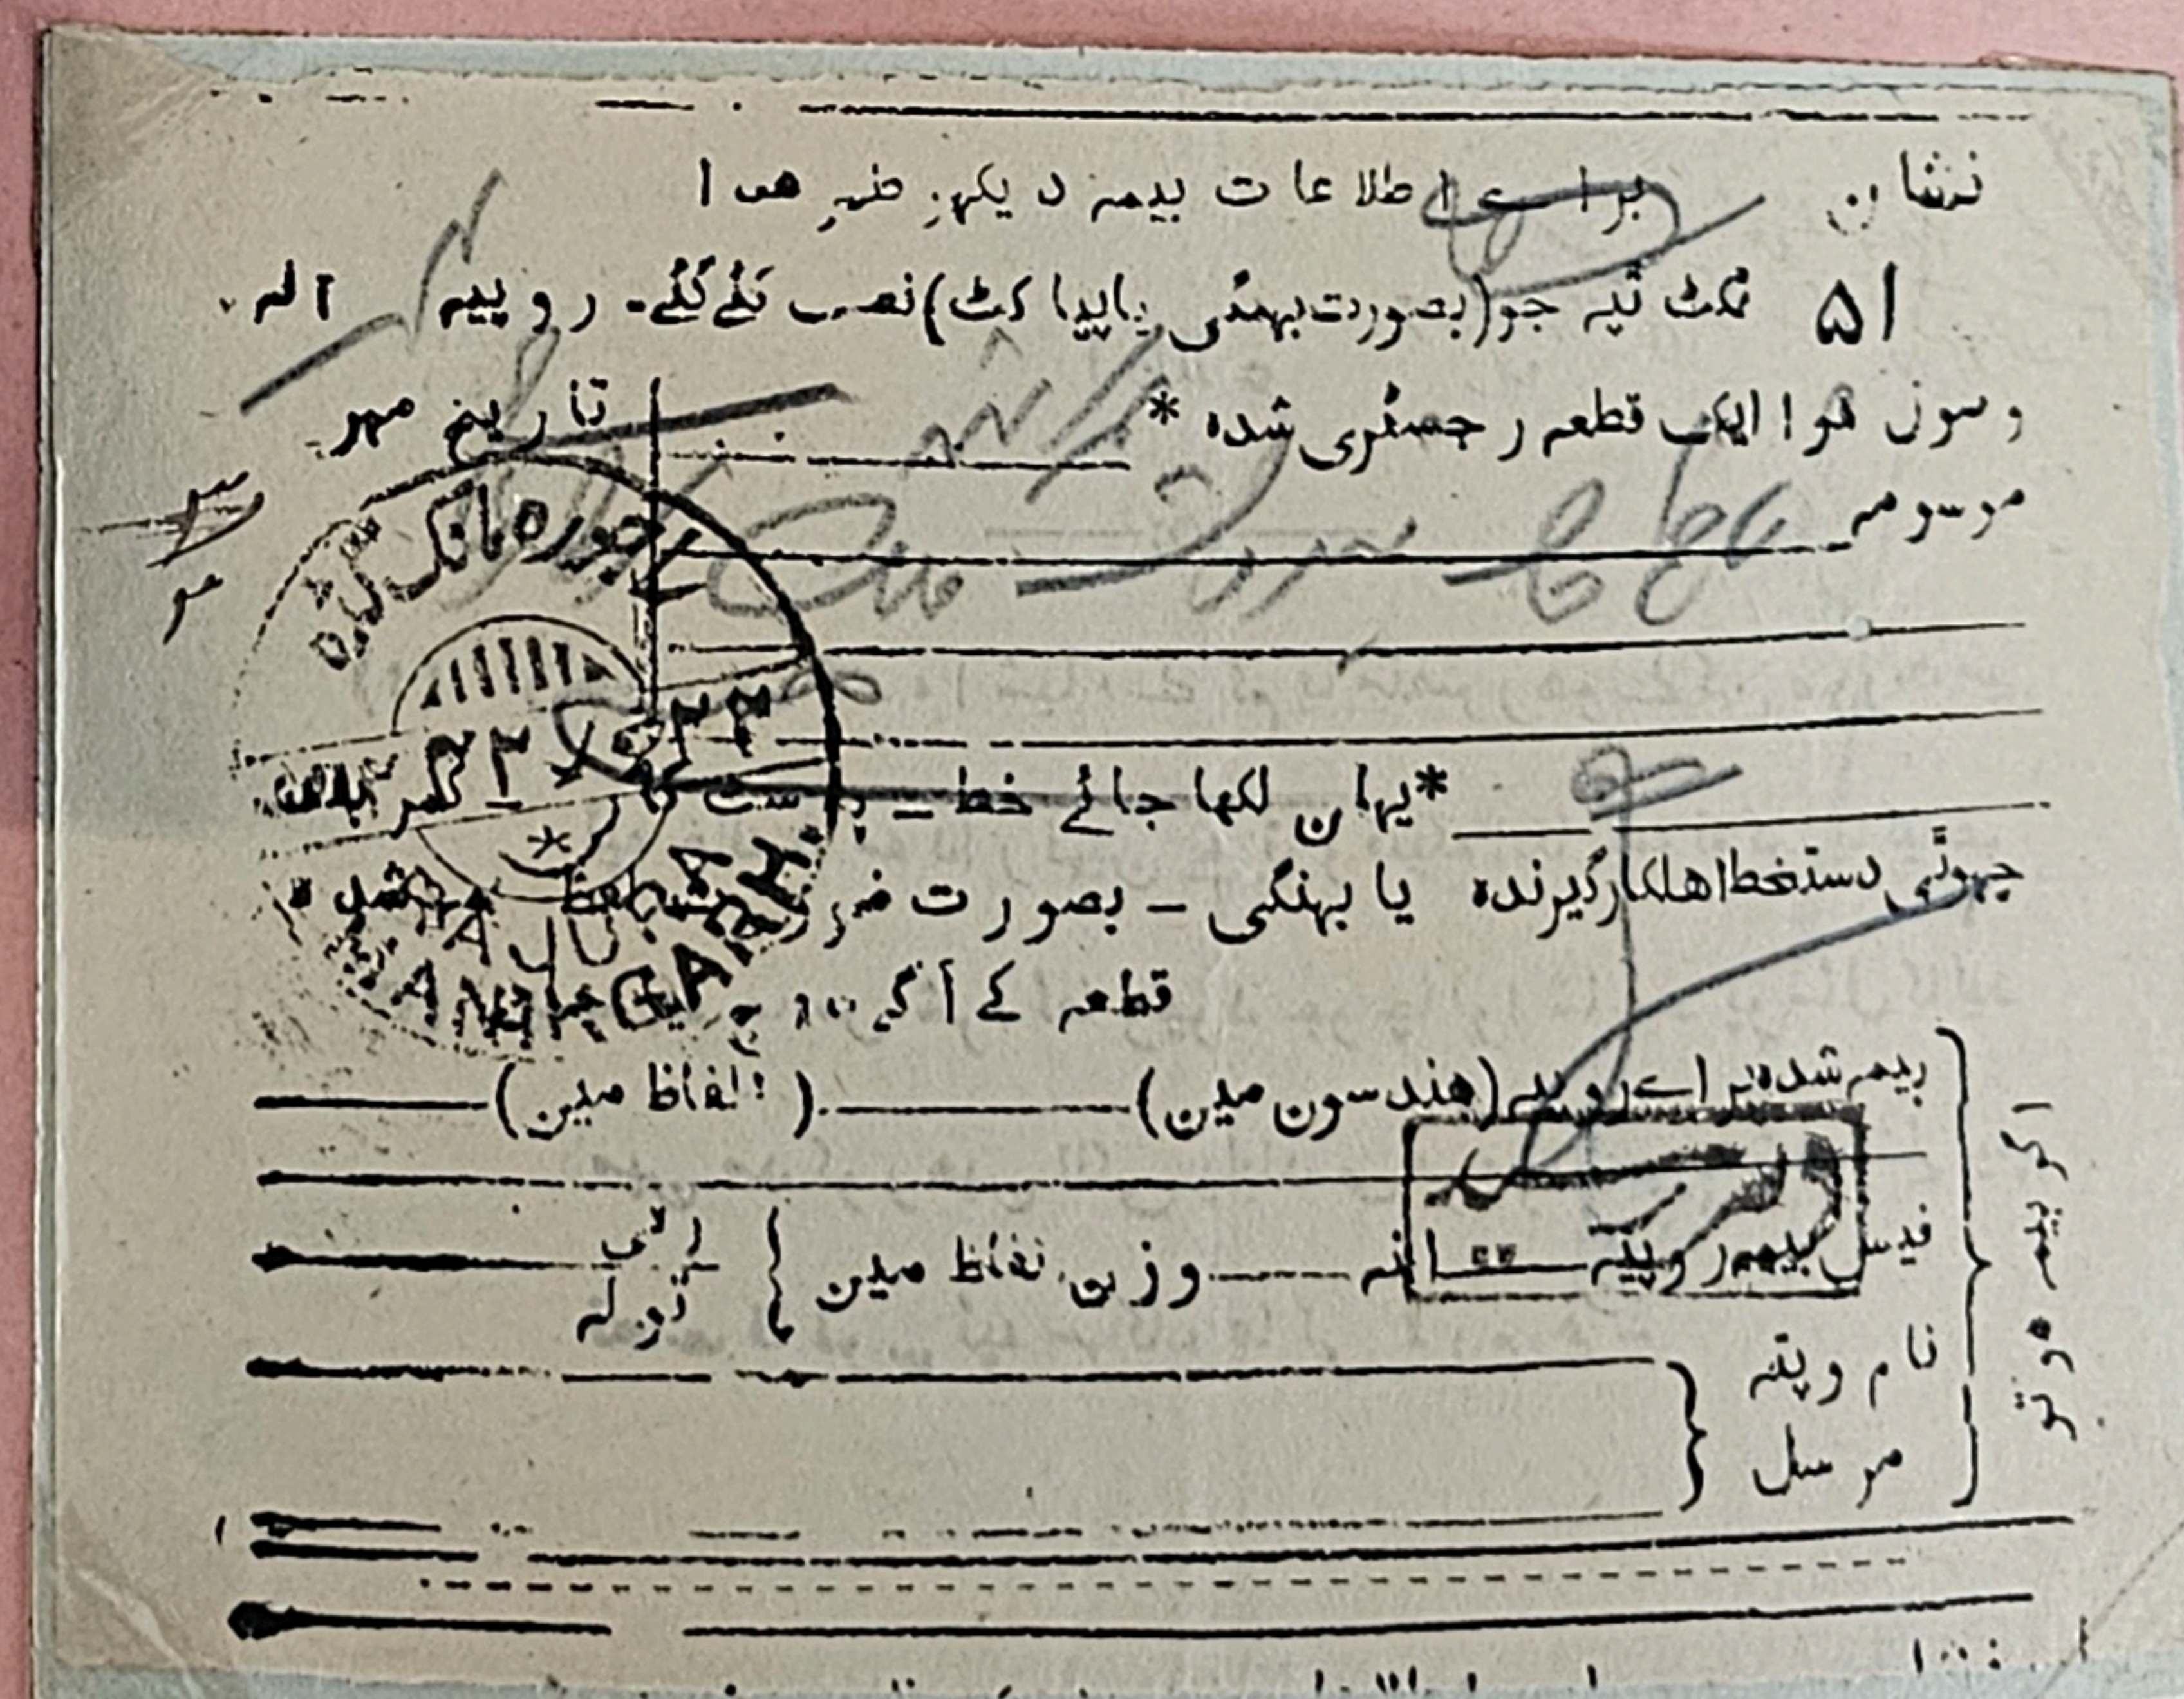

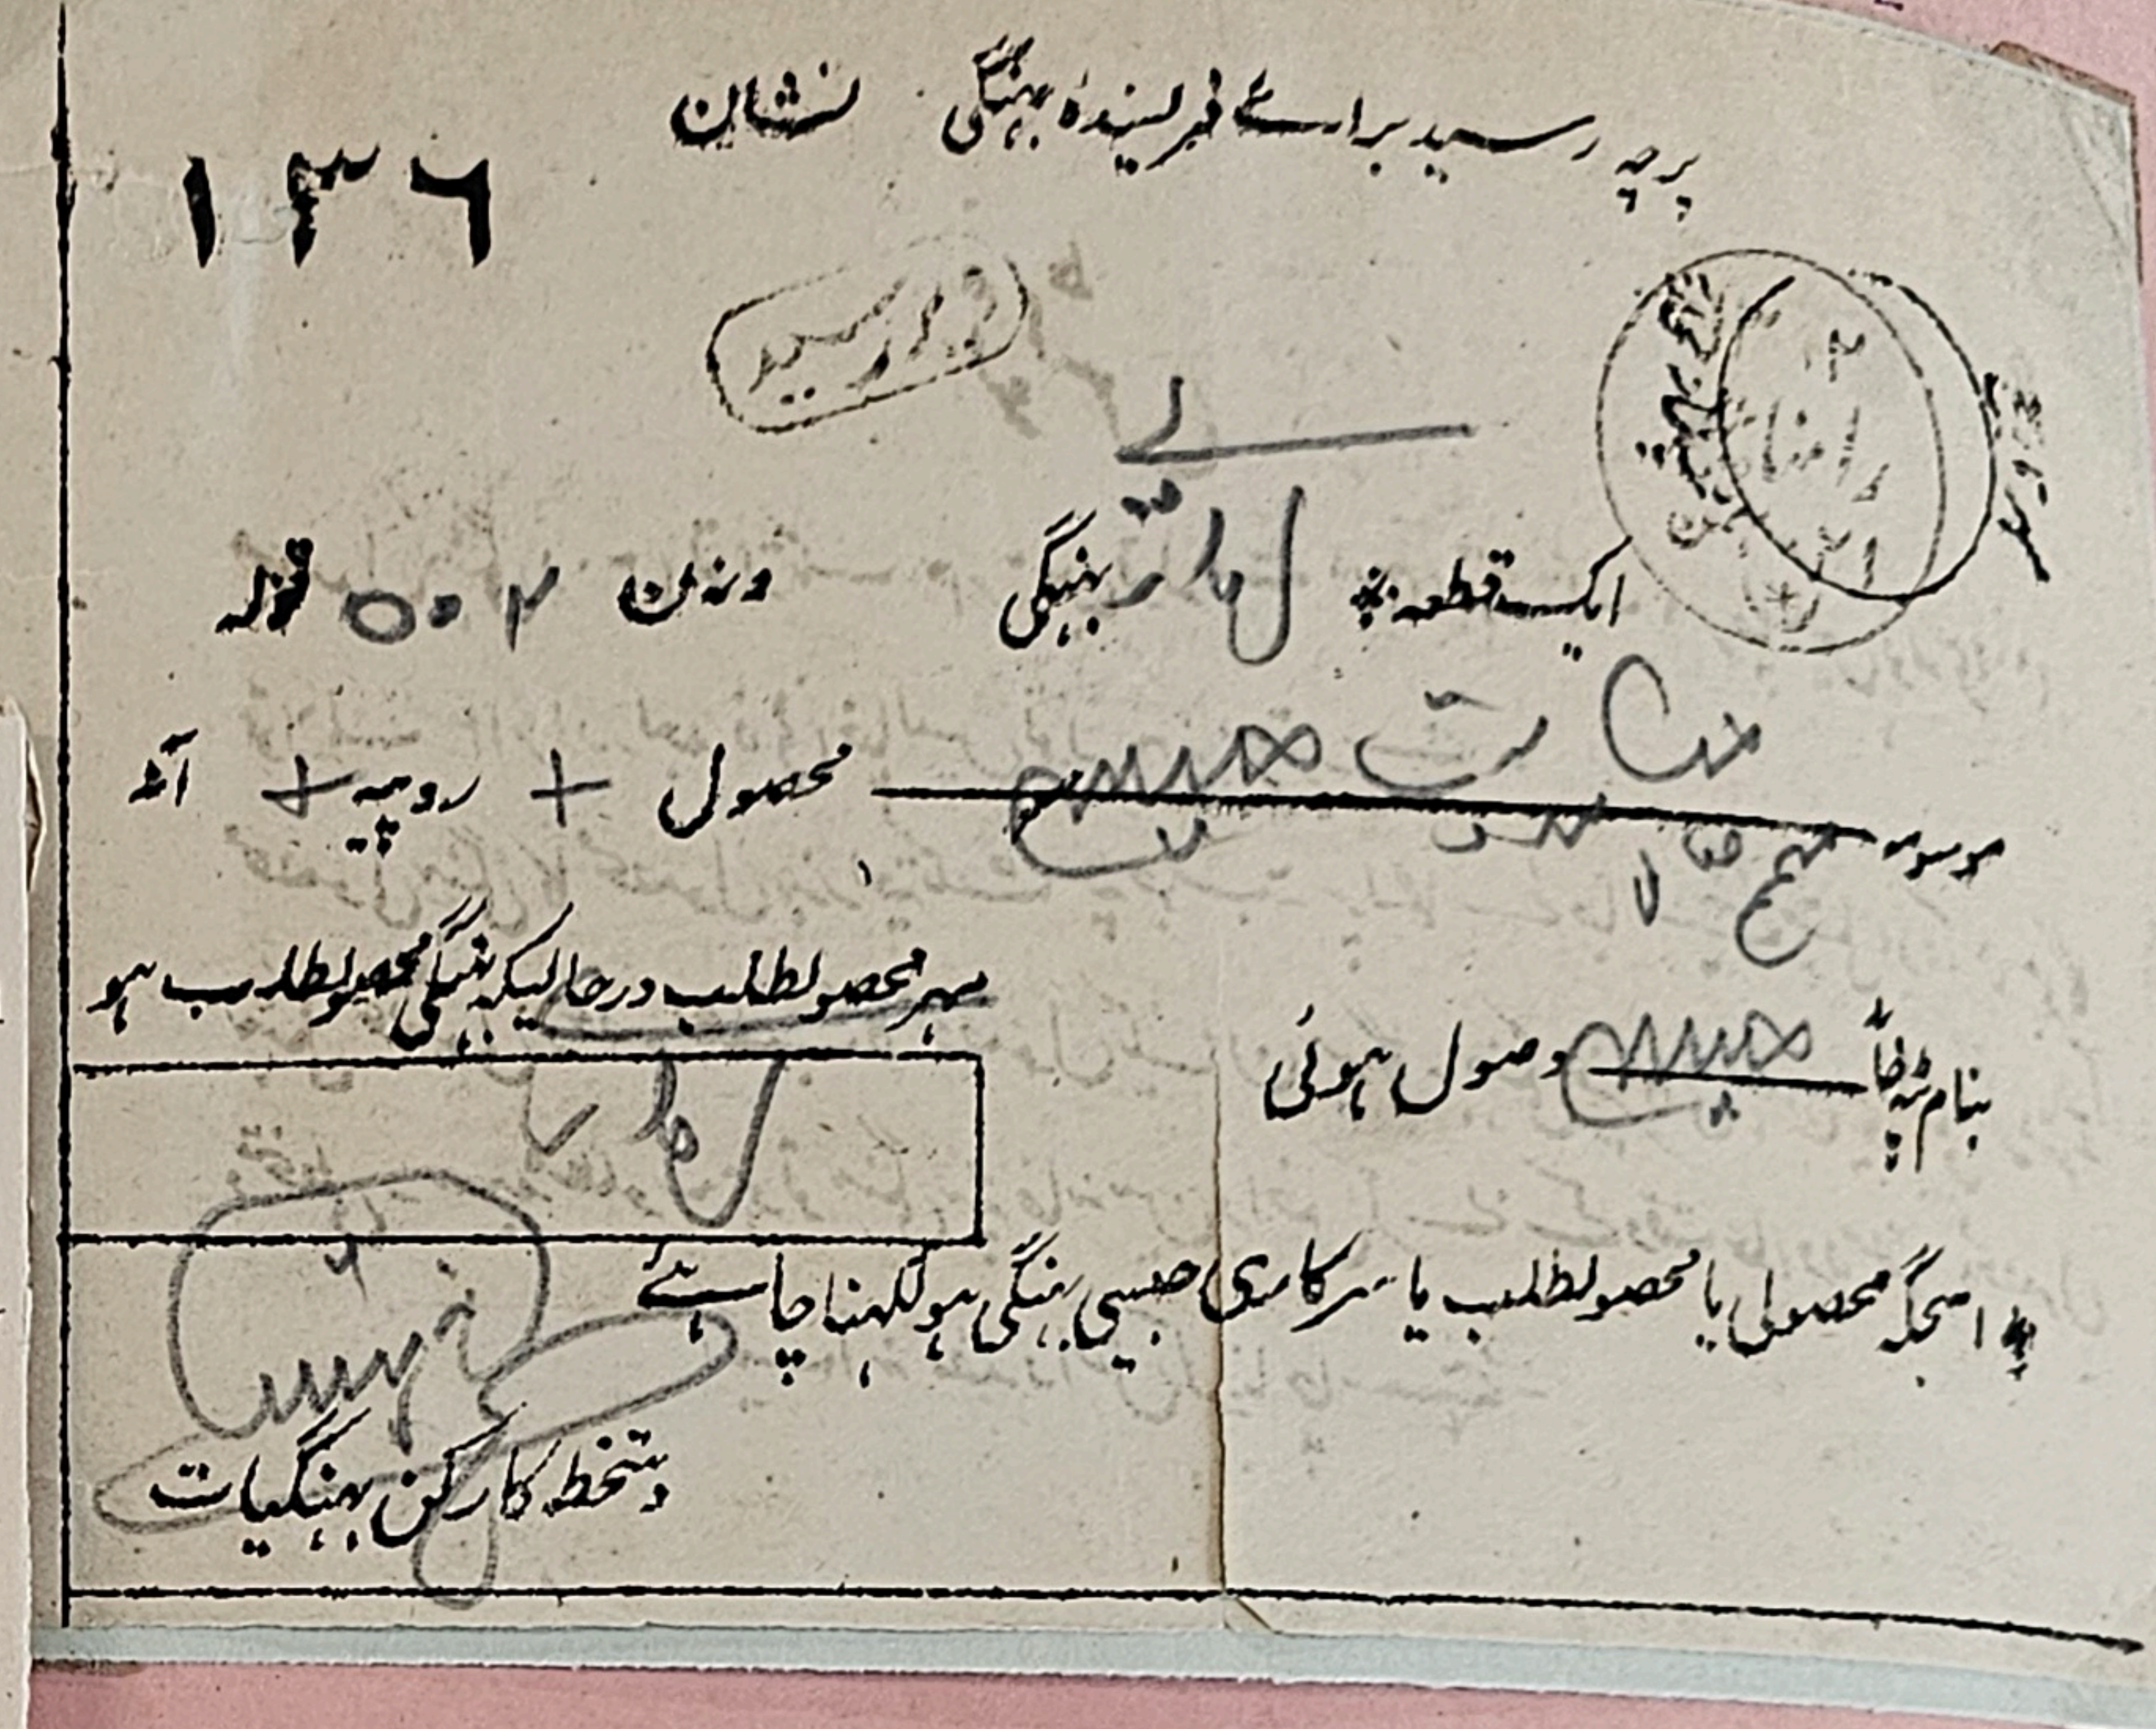

The sizes varied from 22 to 29 mm. in length, and 6 to 13 mm. in depth. The script throughout was crude - Pl. XV.Nos. 130/a and b.

6. R.M.S.:

The following handstamps were issued in this type.

After clearance of the letter box, if a person wished to send any article by post the same was to be handed over at the window of the post office. Late Fee of one anna was to be paid by affixing postage stamps of that value. The post office would then accept the article for sending it along the mail, ready for despatch. If no Late Fee was paid the article was sent by next post, and "Dir Rasid" - No. 130 - marked thereon.

Similarly Late Fee was to be paid for items posted in the train, or in the letter Box on the platform etc. else a handstamp to indicate that Late Fee was not paid hence the article has been detained was used by R.M.S.

This handstamp was an oval, with a band, having in Urdu, "Mahsul Dir Rasid" - LATE FEE - above, "Multawi" - Detained - in centre; and "Ada Na Huwa" - Not paid - below, with four dots on either side.

There were two dies:-

- Size: 24 x 20 mm. with a band 6 mm. thick. Pl. XX. No. 171/a
- Size 21x16 mm. with a band 5 mm. thick. Pl. XX. No. 171/b.
