Two 50-cent Brazilian postage stamps are shown side-by-side. The stamp on the left is reddish-brown and features a profile portrait of a man facing left. The stamp on the right is blue and features a frontal portrait of a bearded man. Both stamps have the word 'BRASIL' at the top and '50' at the bottom right. A large, irregular black circular mark is placed over the center of both stamps, obscuring the portraits. The text 'VINTE REIS' is visible at the bottom of the left stamp, and 'CIENTA REIS' is visible at the bottom of the right stamp.
